Director Extends Voluntary Escrow Period and Release of Securities from Voluntary Escrow

Inca Minerals Limited [ASX: ICG] (Inca) is pleased to advise that 23,000,000 fully paid ordinary shares in Inca, previously disclosed as being set for release from voluntary escrow on 2 March 2013, will now not be released from voluntary escrow until 2 September 2013. These shares are owned by Inca's Managing Director, Mr Ross Brown, who initiated the offer to extend the escrow period.

Mr Brown indicated that "As someone who has been involved with Chanape since its inception and physically seen drill core from the sulphide-bearing porphyry, I have no hesitation in extending the escrow period for my entire shareholding." The Inca Board shares Mr Brown's confidence and is pleased, on behalf of shareholders, to accept Mr Brown's unsolicited offer.

In accordance with ASX Listing Rule 3.10A Inca also advises that 200,000 fully paid ordinary shares in Inca are to be released from voluntary escrow on 8 April 2013 and 23,345,000 fully paid ordinary shares in Inca are to be released from voluntary escrow on 2 March 2013.
